

The gift of bespoke with Semple

Why change to fit the fashion, when you can change the fashion to fit you? Semple believes a woman's wardrobe is an extension of her personality and as such should be elegant, unique and most importantly, bespoke. The Semple Collection is made-to-measure fashion for stylish women who appreciate the personal touch.

From your initial consultation at Semple's atelier in the heart of Covent Garden, become immersed in the creation of your own Semple design, working alongside the company's skilled artisans from the first sketch to the last stitch.

With fittings at times to suit your diary and a precise 'clothes on' measuring service, the Semple experience guarantees to be simple, collaborative and relaxed. Choose from the exquisite range of silks and wools in an array of shades, then complete the bespoke experience with a contrasting coloured lining.

Searching for that perfect present? The Semple Gift Experience offers everything that a woman looks for in a thoughtful and unique present, without the worry of choosing the wrong style or size. Then let Semple do all the hard work for you; sending you a beautifully packaged mini sample dress with a personal message for her.

Fusing impeccable fit with the quality of British manufacturing, the Semple journey is a sartorial experience like no other. A garment that will defy the seasons and become not just a part of your wardrobe, but a part of your life.

"My journey was fantastic and I particularly loved my initial consultation. To sit down and discuss my personality, what I liked and what I'd learnt over the years about my own body shape, made the whole process so much more personal. I knew then that the Semple experience was about so much more than just the garment," said Jane, a Semple client.
